Practical Guidelines for Healing Prayer

The following are some practical suggestions on praying for healing. These guidelines can assist you in your intercession for those who are sick.

- Pray in faith that God will heal the person. When you pray for healing, be bold in your asking. Believe God for the healing in the person's life. God's name and nature reveal that He is a God who is willing and able to heal. This is a powerful motivation for praying for healing. Don't be intimidated or afraid to pray for healing. It is in God's hands. He is the One who heals. Your responsibility is to pray to Him for the release of His healing power. Cry out to Him in faith for healing in the life of the person.
- Be submissive to the Holy Spirit's leadership when praying for healing. As you pray in faith for healing, be sensitive to the Spirit's leadership. He can and will grant you insights that you will need to intercede for this person. He can reveal areas that you need to cover in your praying for the sick person. Ask Him to make you sensitive to His leadership as you pray for healing.
- Pray for the removal of any hindrances to healing in the person's life. Just as there are hindrances to prayer, there are hindrances to healing. I am well aware of the horror stories that circulate concerning this subject. You have probably heard of ministers or evangelists telling people that they did not have enough faith to be healed. These ministers and evangelists place the blame on the person for a lack of healing in his or her life. This adds even more pain to the sick person. This is unfortunate and regrettable. The sick person needs ministry and encouragement, not accusation and ridicule. Yet, at the same time, it must be stated that there are hindrances to healing. We must develop a balance between ministry and encouragement and lovingly confronting any hindrances to healing. There are certain things that hinder a person from receiving God's healing power. We cannot ignore the fact that certain factors can hinder a person from receiving healing. An example is unforgiveness. As you pray for healing, plead that God will enable the person to remove any hindrances to healing. Pray for the removal of these things so that the person can receive healing.
- Persist in praying for healing. Do not become discouraged if healing does not take place immediately. Do not give up praying for the person. Sometimes God is pleased to heal instantaneously. Yet, there are times when His healing is a process—it happens over a period of time. Continue to plead in faith for the person.
- Pray that grace and strength would be given to the person until healing does come. While the person is sick, plead that God would sustain the person. Ask Him to work in the person's life through this time until healing does take place. Pray that His work of sanctification will be advanced and deepened in the person's life.
- Remember that God's healing is sometimes heaven. There are times when God is pleased to heal in this life. Yet, God sometimes heals by taking the person into heaven. He then gives the ultimate and eternal healing.
- Keep your faith fixed on the Healer and not on the healing. God is more important than the healing. An individual's relationship to God is a priority over the healing. Both the sick person and those praying for him or her must seek the Healer first and foremost.
- Immerse yourself in the Word of God. Praying for healing must be based on the Word of God. Dig into God's truth for His claims, His commands, and His promises. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you to texts or verses that will give you insight on how to pray in this particular situation.
- Praise God as you pray for healing. Praise releases God's power. God declares that He will be enthroned in the praises of His people (Psalm 22:3). He will reveal His power as His people praise Him. When the praise goes up, the power comes down. This is a crucial element in praying for healing. The power of praise was introduced to Dick Eastman during his daughter's illness. She was in bed with a temperature of 104 and it was rising rapidly. "Recalling the victory of Judah in 2 Chronicles 20:22, I began to sing a song of praise over Ginger. Instantly the fever broke and sweat actually began to pour down her forehead into my hands." Eastman shared this experience at a later date on television. A young woman saw it and recalled it at a crucial point in her own life. She was in the hospital about to be operated on for a potentially life-threatening situation. Her fever started to rise and her vital signs were rising sharply. She asked the nurse for permission to have her family come in and sing songs of victory. It was quickly granted, and as the family began to sing, blending their voices in a song of victory, her vital signs began to drop, as did her fever. As the song ended, her temperature was 98.6. God had met them in their song (Love On Its Knees, Dick Eastman, Fleming H. Revell Co., 1989). When you pray for healing, praise God for victory. Glorify Him for what He will do in the person's life.
